“We are all caught in an inescapable network of mutuality, tied into a single garment of destiny. Whatever affects one directly, affects all indirectly.”

It’s Election Time

As the November election draws near, prepare yourself to vote. There are 14 State of Texas propositions, one Harris County proposition, and two City of Houston propositions (A & B).

In addition to the propositions, the City of Houston will have an election for a mayor, five at-large council members, District K council member, and city controller.

Attend forums and other venues where you can get to know these candidates and their platforms. A good source of information is the League of Women’s Voters. Also, please see the “Upcoming Events” section of this newsletter for an event.

President’s Message

Greetings fellow Civic Club Members,

This past week we finally received some significant rain. Unfortunately, we had to cancel our National Night Out event because of the rain. I apologize if there were any inconveniences for you. Of course, we were looking forward to this event as it provided an opportunity to bond with old and new neighbors. Please join us at the in-person Civic Club meeting on October 10, where we can discuss other options to replace what we missed with this annual event.

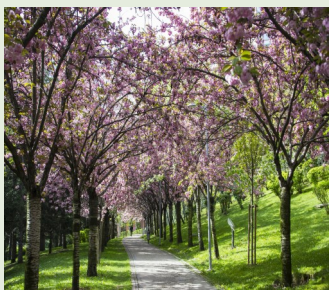

Secondly, as we mentioned in the September newsletter, the November election is drawing near. Be sure you register to vote by October 10 and request your mail ballot by October 27. Visit our website for a sample ballot for our precinct and early voting sites. Also, visit harrisvotes.com for more information.

*Kind Regards,
Shirley*
