April is often associated with Spring, new beginnings, and growth, making themes like gardening, blooming flowers and events like Easter and Earth Day fitting.

With this fresh start, we are hoping that you will consider joining us at our monthly civic club meetings. We have a faithful few who attend every month . We welcome your attendance and support. We hope to see you at the meeting on 4/8/2025

What's Happening Now- Spotlight on a Place!

Houston Public Library's Dr. Shannon Walker Neighborhood Library

Libraries are great places to visit for many great reasons. They serve free of charge as vital community engagement hubs and repositories of knowledge for lifelong learning. The Shannon Walker Library recently won two Development of Distinction Awards from the Houston District Council of the Urban Land Institute (UIL). At your convenience be sure to visit and enjoy the library services that are available for us all. The library is located at 5505 Belrose Drive Houston, Texas 77035.

Congratulations to the Yard of the Month

President's Message

Greetings to everyone. I hope that you are enjoying the change in weather and the warming up of the environment. As we anticipate Summer, we appreciate your continued vigilance ,awareness and concerns for the appearance of our neighborhood. If you do not have it, I challenge you or ask a technology skilled family member or friend to download for you the HTXTrash and Recycling application for detailed information on trash removal information.

News You Can Use

Please abide by the messages on the tree and junk waste signs.

Upcoming Events
