Most likely you noticed the recently posted No Solicitation signs posted at neighborhood entrances to prohibit solicitors from distributing advertising materials on the residents' properties and throughout our neighborhood. These signs are posted to prohibit solicitors from distribution of advertising materials on residents' doors, mailboxes, vehicles, in yards or other personal property.

Civic Club Meetings and other Topics. Please note that our monthly meetings are held at the HPD Substation.

Congratulations to the Yard of the Month 4714 Woodmont

President's Message

Greetings to all. I hope that you were able to attend the annual National Night Out on October 7.

It's noticeably that individuals in the neighborhood are posting yard and garage sales signs on Stop signs, on corner lots of residents' properties and entrances into the neighborhood. Deed restrictions state that no sign shall be displayed to the public view on any lot except for advertising property for sale or rent or for advertising during construction and sales period. For next month's Newsletter, I am asking for assistance with translating this very important information to Spanish. Call 713-730-9899 to assist. Thank you.
