Final voting information before November 3. Election Day is November 3. Major decisions will include high profile contests including governor and US Senate races. The results will help decide who leads Texas in Congress, and makes local and national decisions in government. It is a very lengthy ballot, vote the entire ballot. Don't stop before you get to the end of the ballot. Healthcare, the economy, public education & immigration are among the major issues. Visit www.votetexas.gov/voting for more information.
